Monday-Friday.....8:00 AM to 4:00 PM
Saturday.....8:45 AM to 4:45 PM

You can also visit www.mettransit.org and click on "Paratransit" for further information.

MET Bus Routes on Google Maps

MET Transit has partnered with Google Maps to provide their fixed route bus schedule on Google Maps. maps.google.com or use the Google Maps app on your smart phone.

Now you can find directions in the same manner you may have used Google Maps before. You simply type in your start location (address or business name).
Then click on the directions logo:
Type in your destination(address or business). Notice above the directions you can choose public transit:

Google Maps will give you directions using available bus routes. Note: Some bus routes may not run until tomorrow so check for AM or PM.

There are additional options also. You can choose when you leave or return by clicking the "Leave now" button.

You can also click on the "Route options". You may want to choose "Less walking" during bad weather. Explore different options to choose the trip that works best for you.

MET Transit Real-Time Bus Tracking

A map is accessible via the web browser on any internet-connected device. Just click "Real-Time Map" in the MET Transit website's top menu bar, or visit the site directly at mettransit.org/realtime.

Once you go to the site, you'll see a list of all MET Transit bus routes.

Click on the route you wish to ride on and a map will appear showing the current bus location (updated every five seconds). Note: If you don't see a green (bus moving) or red (bus stopped) circle icon on the map then the route is currently inactive.

Additional Route Information
